Tallgrass quick reference

One team memo. Three updates. Use only the information available at each point.

Team roles

Role	Responsibility
Crisis lead	Keeps the team on time and makes the final call when the team disagrees.
Spokesperson	Drafts the public statements and reads the final statement to the class.
Stakeholder liaison	Speaks for the people affected and drafts the message to them.
Media and digital lead	Reads each update first and tracks the reporter and social media.
Recorder	Types the memo and records how the team's response changes.

Questions for each update

1. Crisis responsibility. Given what people know now, how much responsibility might they assign to the company? What information could change their view?

2. Stakeholder needs. What do the people affected need to do and know now? Who needs to hear from the company first?

3. Identity and promises. What has the company promised people? How does the information you have now relate to those promises?

4. Sensemaking and commitment. What was your team's first position? What evidence would lead you to change it?

5. Accountability and blame. What can the company take responsibility for now? What would you need to know before making a claim about the cause?

Keep a record

Before the next update, write what you decided and what changed your thinking in section 7. Preserve your original statement and record later revisions.

Turn in

Team: One complete briefing memo on Canvas by the end of class. Read your public statement and explain one changed decision in a two-minute briefing.

Individual: An approximately two-page Post-Crisis Evaluation on Canvas by Friday, November 20, 2026, at 11:59 p.m.
